(b) if so, the details of the revisions made since the APM was dismantled; and

(c) whether any mechanism has been evolved to ensure that the oil companies and petrol pump owners do not fleece their customers; if so, the details thereof?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF PETROLEUM AND NATURAL GAS (SHRI SANTOSH GANGWAR): (a) to (c) With the dismantling of the Administered Pricing Mechanism, the public sector oil companies are fixing the prices of petrol and diesel after taking into account the prevalent international oil prices. Considering the increase in the international prices, the oil companies increased the prices of petrol and diesel by around Rs. 2.50/litre and Rs. 1.50/litre respectively from 4th June, 2002 and later by around Rs. 0.25/litre for each product from 16th June, 2002.

The public sector oil companies have been advised to publicise through media, any changes in the prices of petrol and diesel, for the awareness of the consumers.
